A Lenten Message

(This message has been prepared by the churches of the Torrance Ministerial Union with the hope and prayer that it will bring inspiration and comfort in these Lenten days.)

The Lenten season comes to us this year at a time when there seems to be more darkness than light in the world, more uncertainty than security, more apprehension than faith. It comes with a peculiar significance and affords us the opportunity to fortify our souls and find new strength for our spirits as we again reverently turn our thoughts toward Calvary.

We are reminded by the recurrence of this Hallowed season of our responsibilities and obligations as followers of the One whom we shall try to follow to the cross. That cross stands as the most significant event in the world's history, for after Calvary comes Easter.

His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is His own interpreter,
And He will make it plain.

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This question is the subject of the Sunday Lesson Sermon in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text from the Psalms reads: "God be true, the liars are confounded; and cause his face to shine upon us; that thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations."
When John the Baptist sent two of his disciples to Jesus with the inquiry, "Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?" a Lesson-Sermon passage from Luke's Gospel says that Jesus replied, "Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached, and blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me."
In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy writes: "If sin, sickness, and death are as real as Life, Truth, and Love, then they must all be from the same source; God must be their author. . . . Is it possible, then, to believe that the evils which Jesus lived to destroy are real or the offspring of the divine will?"
